

“Before us stand two Portals.” – Article for Nov. 12th/2010.

“Until one is committed, there is hesitancy, the chance to draw back, always ineffectiveness. Concerning all acts of initiative and creation, there is one elementary truth the ignorance of which kills countless ideas and splendid plans: that the moment one definitely commits oneself, then providence moves too. All sorts of things occur to help one that would never otherwise have occurred. A whole stream of events issues from the decision, raising in one’s favour all manner of unforeseen incidents, meetings and material assistance which no person could have dreamed would have come their way. Whatever you can do or dream you can, begin it. Boldness has genius, power and magic in it. Begin it now!” Goethe.

Humanity has moved into a critical time period. Before us stand two Portals. We have a choice. One is to repeat the mind-set of the past several thousand years, and thus keep digging an ever deepening grave – OR - to embark on a new and exciting adventure into as yet, largely uncharted waters. The choice is ours – as a species - as individuals.

The past lies laid out before us to this moment in time to reflect on with all its horrors and tragedies. In our blindness we have sadly contributed to it, in most cases out of ignorance, in which we have blindly followed the cultural conditioning we have been raised in, as were our parents and their parents back back into the mists of darker times.

I have heard a wise teacher suggest that our mis-guided behaviours will keep repeating until the ‘Penny’ drops and we raise up from the dead and see a new but distant Light beckoning to us; to have the courage to walk forward and accept it as real. To begin to bath in its enfolding embrace as we link our hands with others who too have heard the ‘Call’ and removed the blindfolds from the deadness of our past fears – fears that have so controlled us! A past in which we have given our power away to those who would take it for their own misguided motives and behaviour. Ignorance breeds ignorance.

“Out out brief candle – life is but a poor player that struts and frets his hour upon the stage – and then is heard no more. It is a tale told by an idiot full of sound and fury signifying nothing.” ‘Shakespeare’ - [Sir Francis Bacon actually] - wrote this about 500 years ago – Has anything changed? Must we wait until we remove this ‘mortal coil’ - or can we wake up now and see the graveyards we have allowed to be dug in our combined pasts and have the courage to say - “Enough!” We deserve better – and certainly our children do.

If all of us started to join hands and reflect on the world we would like to live in maybe we could make it happen. No – NO “What ifs”! – visualize it! let go of that controlling emotion called fear - we deserve better but only we can make it happen. The road of Love is the strongest and surest road to walk on. We don't need to compete with each other for our existence. We need to see and appreciate that by working in concert and not competing - sharing our efforts as in a very real community of people, we can leave the darkness of the past and begin to dance and sing as we begin to wake up in a new world of our combined creation. This can be a global effort. Let not "lines on a map" divide us. There are many already around the world working in and with different organizations who have the vision. If more and more embrace this vision then the magical tipping point will be reached and it WILL happen!

When it does it will be the biggest "WOW" we will have ever experienced. SO - Let the Dance begin! A dance in which men and women will join hands as equals. Dance dance dance the night away and throw our cares to the wind - embracing the dawning of this OUR New Day.

It WILL happen – It MUST happen, or we will sink into a bottomless grave of our own making. If that should happen there will be a sickening silence across the land – the candle snuffed and life as we know it will disappear into the thickening shadows extending into an endless night – a night we will have largely created by allowing ourselves to be controlled by negative forces. Forces that have been controlling us throughout this past Age of darkness through fear. Rulers have done it – religions have done it. God – that creative force of the Universe – is Love. This Love has no judgements used to control us – IT simply IS! So be it.
