

The Conscious Convergence mission is to bring people together with the shared intention of cultivating a critical mass of harmonious energy that supports inner and outer reconciliation. We come together in the spirit of unity to heal wounds that separate us, to reconcile conflicts that divide us, to inspire ideas and actions that express our oneness, and to join together in heart and mind to welcome the birth of our new world.

A wave of unity is growing as we approach the Conscious Convergence Ceremony on July 17th and 18th. This weekend is the convergence and launching point for unity consciousness to be expressed in the coming months and years as we proactively welcome and co-create our new world. Please join us on these upcoming Global Tele-Webcasts:

Please visit The Conscious Convergence Group page to view the many unique events that are being organized around the world for this program. Once you have joined the group, you can create a sub-group to list your own events, which will post in the main group page as well as on the Common Passion events page. Further details for The Conscious Convergence program are provided to members on our free Announcement List

The Conscious Convergence is a global collaborative of individuals and organizations whose purpose is to set the intention for, and to demonstrate the fulfillment of, unity consciousness, both individually and within communities around the world. All wisdom and faith traditions are invited to join and help express how we, as an evolving species, can transcend age-old boundaries and ideologies to fulfill a greater destiny than our history may imply.

THE GLOBAL TREE OF LIFE by Carl Calleman

Ceremony to recreate the Global Tree of Life: The ancient cultures of our planet almost universally honored the four Sacred Directions. A well-known example is the Medicine Wheel of the North American Indians, and the concept of guardian angels in the four cardinal directions was shared for instance by Chinese, Buddhist and Judaeo-Christian traditions. The Tree of Life (Polar Axis) was often seen as the center and originator of the different energies of the four directions and is profoundly related to the consciousness of our planet and its evolution. As part of the Conscious Convergence people will be gathering, among many other places in the West (Mayan elders), the North (Scandinavia), the East (Singapore and Bali, Chinese-Hindu Convergence) and the South (South Africa, including representatives of the San people, the oldest culture of our planet) in practice providing the framework for global ceremonies honoring the four directions. While people will be gathering in several locations in Hawaii, we are still looking for participation in Gabon or elsewhere in Central Africa. Through the gatherings of people in the four directions the Conscious Convergence is offering the possibility of connecting to other ceremonies taking place in the four directions as a means for the Tree of Life to again come alive.

Based on the intention to manifest unity consciousness a meditation should everywhere be part of the Conscious Convergence where the participants ask the divine (higher intelligence): "What shall I do in order to help manifest unity consciousness?" or "What can I do to serve the manifestation of the cosmic plan?" The Conscious Convergence is only the beginning and those setting the intention should then following this event on a daily basis ask these questions and take actions in accordance with the answers they receive. The Conscious Convergence is like a base camp for those that in the time ahead chose to become co-creators with the cosmic plan. This will happen in resonance with the global tree of life. Ask and it shall be given, but we have to ask for a transformation to unity consciousness to see it happen.

The Conscious Convergence Shared Intention:

“I, as a sovereign being, join together with All That Is to call forth the presence of balance and unity within me and in our world. I am the conscious presence of harmony and reconciliation and I am grateful for the wholeness I bring forth in this and every moment. And so it is.”

This global collaborative prepares us for the Ninth Wave of evolution of consciousness as indicated by the Mayan Calendar, a system developed by a respected, ancient civilization. Mayan elders invite us to align with the divine plan for humanity's greater fulfillment, to recognize that "we are one like the fingers of one hand." -- Grand Elder Don Alejandro Cirilo Perez Oxlej, "Wandering Wolf"

Local and global intention-setting activities, meditations and prayers will be synchronized throughout the months leading up to and following the main program on July 17th and 18th, 2010.
