Tip of the Week:

The last week of 2024 has arrived and we are well into the countdown to 2025. This Horoscope will offer a sneak peek into January.

The New Moon in Capricorn on December 30 indicates that we will begin with a prominent Mars in fiery Leo and Mercury in fiery, truth-oriented Sagittarius - together symbolic of the courageous determination to ask hard questions.

While these can be directed to the larger scope of reality or the human condition or the current political status of affairs, the truly wise and courageous will direct their focus to their personal status in terms of their cycles of destiny and what they can do to make meaningful contributions to their own personal alignment, health and growth. In this highest sense, this includes orientations for the benefit and welfare of others.

In the meantime, the festive season continues. In my universe, the 12 days of Christmas are from December 19, when the Sun is conjunct the Galactic Center, to December 31. In this regard, my Christmas Special aligns with this dateline.

Given the fact that 2025 promises to be... eventful, now is a good time to pay it forward and reserve time in the bank for Readings, get an Annual Membership (or two), which you can keep or give as gift(s) to my Member's Newsletter and allocate 30-minutes to any upcoming Masterclass in 2025.

P.S. Purchased time never expires. Look HERE to see the depth and scope of my NEW Member's Area, designed to provide you with a clearer perspective above and beyond what you will find anywhere else.

Happy New Year! I wish you every success and happiness in 2025.

Weekly Horoscope:

Aries (Mar 21 – Apr 20)

The Capricorn New Moon seeing you across the 2025 threshold supports some measure of solidity, yet things will not likely catapult at high speed. Rather, you are probably wise to focus on clearing any debts, blocks and literal or psychological debris from yesteryear. This orientation should become increasingly evident as 2025 builds momentum.

Taurus (Apr 20 – May 21)

Stepping back to see a bigger picture is likely now. Assessing the quality of the flow of returns from prior periods and choices made in your life continues. It is often a mixed bag and the courage and strength required for self-honesty may be required. Positively, you are enjoying fulfillment on a variety of fronts, even if you yearn to achieve more.

Gemini (May 21 – Jun 21)

It is an ironic fact that leadership and authority can be achieved by surrendering. It comes down to knowing what you have influence over and what you do not. Purging lofty, idealistic notions and more fully embracing what is... will help you to dismiss your mind from agitating your emotions. Surrender and acceptance are keys to inner peace.

Cancer (Jun 21 – Jul 22)

Seeing the truth and purpose of your most significant relationships could prove both illuminating and perhaps sobering too. This could prove true on both personal and professional fronts. Some measure of sacrifice, or more of it, might be required. Turning within to access hidden reserves of faith will help.

Leo (Jul 22 – Aug 23)

Making deliberate improvements wherever possible will increase your confidence now. This can include clearing the clutter and liberating yourself from energy drains. This process of getting into the corners both to clear and to improve will require extra efforts, but will reward you with increased energy levels and creative inspiration.

Virgo (Aug 23 – Sep 22)

Capricorn power is yours to harness. It speaks of creative purpose, power, and determination. Within this scope, variety is the spice, so allow for it to glide from one area to another, and then another, as fits your situation. Saturn in Pisces is asking you to commit and to bring emphasis to new designs.

Libra (Sep 22 – Oct 22)

Solidifying your overall base of operations continues. The theme has significantly included health and it remains a core goal. The rub here is that it has and continues to require more time and energy than you want to give to it. Moderation is ever a keyword and it can include moderate exercise and moderations to your diet.

Scorpio (Oct 22 – Nov 21)

Capricorn time for you indicates one of generating fresh perspectives. These can include your interpretation of matters, but also cultivating new and better self-concepts. What we think and believe about ourselves is extra important and, accordingly, requires extra effort. The key is to be your own best friend, balancing self-honesty with self-acknowledgment.

Sagittarius (Nov 21 – Dec 21)

Keeping both feet on the ground, or all four hooves, as the case may be is extra important now. As you look forward and find yourself taking pioneering leads, it is important to get clear on what constitutes personal freedom and what you have to do to achieve it. This can include establishing healthy boundaries, and to know when and how to say yes and no.

Capricorn (Dec 21 – Jan 19)

The Sun in your sign indicates a call to take new leads and strides. As determined as you may be to do so, however, you may be dealing with various obstructions to your vision. You are not alone in this regard. In any case, you likely have leftovers from 2024 with which to contend. You are probably wise to focus on cleanup and completion, leaving the 'new' for spring.

Aquarius (Jan 19 – Feb 19)

The Sun in Capricorn tends to lead you to retreat, or more introversion. However, other factors are also activating a philosophical perspective on the future. Dealing with overwhelm in this regard may be an issue with so much readily available information from which to choose. Meanwhile, needed renovations can point to attitudes, but could also prove literal.

Pisces (Feb 19 – Mar 20)

Who are your friends and why? This question is personal and only you can answer it. Yet, determining whether you are experiencing a fair exchange as opposed to left feeling wanting or drained is important. An honest review is important, so be willing to vote for yourself and your right to choose to deepen or depart, or at least take space.
