

Sun Star Astrology Weekly Horoscope for January 19, 2024

Tip of the Week:

Pluto's second of three ingresses in Aquarius occurs on Saturday, January 20, 2024. Interestingly, just hours prior to making this grand second entry the Sun and Pluto form an exact conjunction at the 29th degree of Capricorn activating a cycle that will continue for exactly 1 year, when the next cycles between Sun and Pluto occur at the first degree of Aquarius on January 20, 2025!

So, this is the BIG news now and many predictions are flooding the airwaves ranging from the most egregious to lofty notions of a new dawn for humanistic attitudes sweeping the world. Both ends of the poles are likely to be true, but one thing is certain, it is most likely to be a very revolutionary two decades through to 2024 when Pluto enters Pisces.

The first thing to understand is that while Pluto did already in March 2023, and is again now on and it will be there until Sept 1, 2024, when it will once again re-enter Capricorn and hover at the critical 29th degree for 2.5 months! Then, finally, the official long haul through Aquarius, the Water Bearer, the Master Number 11 sign position in the Zodiac, occurs on November 19, 2024, with the Sun in the late degrees of Scorpio...

This week's Horoscope will bring some attention to the likely impact of this significant event.

Aries (Mar 21 – Apr 19)

Pluto in Aquarius is already and will activate changes regarding your long-term goals. What once appealed to you does no longer, and you are probably excited to explore new territory. Your friendships are also likely to change, as with whom and why you want to associate. By extension, this will lead to new associations all around.

Taurus (Apr 20 – May 20)

Your ambitions have probably been spiking since Pluto entered Aquarius last year. Due to the three-beat process, the larger measure of it will occur in 2025. However, already the impulses will be there, and you can feel it like revving and roaring your engines before the big race. The main challenge is to know what you want and your direction.

Gemini (May 21 – Jun 21)

Your worldview is destined to change significantly over the coming years. This process was technically initiated last spring. Your scope on life is destined to both deepen and widen. This will become increasingly evident when Uranus enters Gemini in the summer of 2025. For now, enjoy this next major phase of cultivating your higher mind.

Cancer (Jun 22 – Jul 22)

Wow, Pluto in Aquarius for you is destined to be very powerful indeed. It can be accurately said that you will experience the full scope of its powers of regeneration and transformation. Admittedly, with Scorpio comes themes of death and endings, yet also of rebirth. You could also become more interested in esoteric and occult subjects.

Leo (Jul 23 – Aug 23)

Aquarius is your polar opposite sign and so is directly associated with your most intimate relationships. This can include your spouse or life partner but can also extend to business partners. In any case, major changes are certain, but they may not end, per se. Rather how you engage together may be what changes.

Virgo (Aug 24 – Sep 22)

Your entire lifestyle is the focus of the regenerative process that Pluto in Aquarius symbolizes. Naturally, this will include the quality of your health or lack thereof. Positively, you will replace old, negative habits with new and better ones. The key is to think long-term and not assume that some crash diet or exercise fad will suffice.

Libra (Sep 23 – Oct 22)

Destiny is inviting you to identify what makes you special and what constitutes your true power. At the high end, you will point the spotlight on latent interests, talents, and skills. You could even achieve various levels of fame and acclaim or at least notoriety. Guided by deeper passions, you will strive for excellence and even mastery.

Scorpio (Oct 23 – Nov 21)

Pluto in Aquarius will give rise to a more refined and defined sense of your individuality. Authenticity is a keyword, and you will feel compelled to move beyond wishful thinking and step into who you truly are. Changes close to home and with family are also destined and these will probably manifest both where and how you live.

Sagittarius (Nov 22 – Dec 21)

Your overall scope of perception is destined to change with Pluto in Aquarius. This could include prior beliefs that you once held dear and any assumptions you may have will be challenged by both people and circumstances. Your willingness to listen more and learn from everyone and everything, ever keeping an open mind, will make the journey smoother.

Capricorn (Dec 22 – Jan 19)

Your overall scope of value and what and who you deem to be important is changing. Old foundations will undergo a steady breakdown. This could amount to losses and financial challenges. However, the exact opposite may also be true. You could finally break through years of poverty or financial struggle and achieve great wealth.

Aquarius (Jan 20 – Feb 19)

Pluto in your sign is destined to bring about changes in your overall mode of self-expression and your personality. Positively, you will learn to express yourself more powerfully. Self-improvement campaigns are a distinct possibility. The biggest challenge will be to direct your focus to self-control and not to attempt to control others.

Pisces (Feb 20 – Mar 20)

Deep, psychological changes are destined with Pluto in Aquarius. Positively, hidden, latent powers will be brought to the surface. Yet so too might some darker sides of your personality be flushed out. This is a prime opportunity to do inner or shadow work. At best, you will significantly clear your subconscious and bring forth powers you only dreamed of.
