Tip of the Week:

The second of a steady series of stelliums, (three or more planets huddle closely in a specific sign), begins today on February 16, and continues into next week.

It is comprised of Sun, Mercury, Venus, Mars, and Pluto, all in.... Aquarius!

It generally constitutes an added boost of power to the year of the Dragon - the launch of which culminates with the Full Moon coming up on February 24.

The deeper story includes the fact that as each planet formed a conjunction with Pluto, it activated an approximate 1-year cycle. Ironically, the first of these was Sun conjunct Pluto at 29 Capricorn 59, (the very last minute of the sign of the goat and governments), just hours before both officially entered Aquarius. This means that the cycle they activated together at this critical degree will continue until January 21, 2025!

This is all a feature of the lead-up to the official sunrise moment of the Age of Aquarius.

On that note, your journey can begin by attending my first in a series of Masterclasses tomorrow, on Saturday, February 17: Understanding the Age of Aquarius.

Weekly Horoscope:

Aries (Mar 21 – Apr 19)

The revolutionary impulse of Aquarius was amplified when Mars entered it last week and conjunct with Pluto, to boost your system into the next gear, or two. Now, Venus is adding to the mix with its own smoky, sexy verve. All of this is invariably getting you excited one way or another. With all those amplified desires, how will you respond?

Taurus (Apr 20 – May 20)

Talk about dynamic! The red flags are flying and while for others these say ‘Stop’, for you in this case, they say ‘Charge’! Jupiter and Uranus both in your sign are steadily building gravity and torque in the background that will culminate on April 20, just as ‘Taurus time’ gets underway. In the meantime, your best bet it is to get the tools and training you need, superstar!

Gemini (May 21 – Jun 21)

Hopefully, all of this Aquarius energy is alleviating the weight and drag of Capricorn over the past several weeks. Have faith that whatever happened by synchronicity in alignment with those heavy weights, they were all features of your destiny. Your awakened and enlivened acceptance and response includes the wisdom of surrender, with awareness that doing so is not defeat, but victory.

Cancer (Jun 22 – Jul 22)

Well, you know the cliché - “when it rains it pours”. If there was ever a time when it proves its truth, it is likely to be now. The key is to work with the changing dynamic as cooperatively as you can. It generally implies some kind of transformation, perhaps even a metamorphosis. While seldom an easy process, it will be made so by your willingness to cooperate.

Leo (Jul 23 – Aug 23)

This powerful Aquarius influence is activating your relationship life. Not necessarily your personal relationships, or at least not solely, but your wider outreach to your fans, clients, or the greater collective in general, and maybe even all the above. The key now is to be willing to take risks to increase your confidence levels. Remember, showing up is the first measure of success.

Virgo (Aug 24 – Sep 22)

All this Aquarius energy is activating your sphere of daily rhythm, routine, and lifestyle in general. Whatever is happening, you are likely experiencing some strong indications of a new norm. It may not last forever, but it will likely remain for about a year anyway, until the next Sun, Pluto conjunction. There is a strong indication that you have work to do.

Libra (Sep 23 – Oct 22)

A strong, creative impulse is indicated by the Aquarius vibe pulsing strongly now. It is likely pushing you out of your comfort zone to do what you feel you must. What is required may also demand a patient resolve. Positively, you are feeling creatively inspired and your sense of leadership is being ignited as well. Returns of various kinds are likely coming in, so stay tuned.

Scorpio (Oct 23 – Nov 21)

Aquarius time for you tends to shake things up close to home. This is extra likely this year with a five planet stellium of planets all joining in. Especially Mars and Pluto are pushing you to dig deeply to get to the bottom of things. You likely yearn for change on relationship fronts especially. With Jupiter there, go for expansion and increase of your outreach for the best results.

Sagittarius (Nov 22 – Dec 21)

This Aquarius illumination is igniting light in your mind alright. Hopefully the many new realizations are the kind you want and are not rude awakenings of any kind. If the latter is true, just remember that we all have blind spots, biases, and prejudices even, so it is par for the course. We see things as we do for good reasons, but then it is time to see things differently, like now!

Capricorn (Dec 22 – Jan 19)

Your values, priorities and what you generally deem important are being shaken. The very ground you stand on, perhaps both literally and figuratively, are proving their worth, or are showing you that they are not as reliable as you might have assumed. Whatever is happening, take note and direct your mind and imagination to how you can fortify your foundations to feel stronger than ever.

Aquarius (Jan 20 – Feb 19)

All these planets in your own sign suggest new beginnings and perhaps also the need to take fresh steps and initiatives. These will become clearer as the Moon culminates to full on the 24th. Positively, they are pointing to changes, yes, in your public or professional life or social status in general, but ones that will present you with new opportunities.

Pisces (Feb 20 – Mar 20)

As though all the lights were turned on suddenly in an otherwise dark basement, you are now able to see what was not so evident before. Hopefully, you are liking what you are seeing and discovering valuable riches of some kind, hidden gems, and good karmas from previous efforts and cycles. With the Sun so close to your sign now, the opportunity to act on them is also fast approaching!
