"Dear Michael, thank you so much for your absolutely brilliant reading. Your reading has given me the most helpful and healing insight into my complex and challenging relationship with my husband. This was much more than I was expecting. Your ability to help me understand what is going on in our lives without judgment and with compassion at a higher perspective is everything I needed. This was like having years of therapy but the healing I need came in one session with you. I was distraught and confused for a long time and after your reading, I woke up this morning with a sense of peace and clarity that I've haven't had until now." ~ Patti

Tip of the Week:

We have made the leap... and now March 2024 begins. It does so with the Moon in deep, mysterious, and passionate Scorpio. As it applies towards an opposition to Jupiter and Uranus in Taurus, (with both ends of this dynamic pull pointing to Venus and Mars in Aquarius), it could well manifest as embroiled passions, for better or worse.

On the other hand, since it will be making harmonious aspects to Saturn, Sun, Mercury and Neptune in Pisces, its edge will be softened and could be directed toward creative activity, with emphasis on exploring deeper truths.

The Scorpio/Pisces combination refers to life's deeper mysteries. Both signs can be understood to be symbolically associated with esotericism, mysticism, and alchemy. These refer to the evolution of the soul with respect to annihilating or transcending ego-centric perspectives and attitudes, which largely manifest as fear-based and divisive. Transcending this lower pull implies principles of love and unity.

Scorpio brings an emphasis on science to mystical Pisces and includes techniques and rituals to facilitate the mystical state and the ascension process. Better understanding these themes and inner dimensionality in general, (especially in its association with the archetypal blueprint of existence), is among the treasures I will be covering in my upcoming Masterclass:

Weekly Horoscope:

Aries (Mar 21 – Apr 19)

Venus and Mars together have been busy activating a revolutionary push. This is probably especially true regarding your fiscal reality. However, your overall value system and priorities are also likely under review. What do you want and need, and how can you best achieve those goals? Yet, with the strong Pisces influence, you may be busier wondering and dreaming than acting, for now...

Taurus (Apr 20 – May 20)

Well, if anyone is making a revolutionary push of some kind more than your Aries friends, it is you. Since the last Aquarius Full Moon in early February, circumstances have been shifting and so too are your perspectives. Changes in your public and professional life are highlighted. Others may see you are pushy or impatient, but you must do what you feel you must!

Gemini (May 21 – Jun 21)

Sweet dreams are made of these, but so too are less pleasant reveries. A bittersweet mix is probably the result, so it is up to you to focus on the sweet as you absorb the bitter. Finding reason to be grateful and happy is ever wise and especially so now. This trend will continue for a while so be as patient as you can with yourself, people, and circumstances.

Cancer (Jun 22 – Jul 22)

A philosophical, visionary, and reflective period vies with the push and pull of deeper passions and realities. Slow and sure is the proverbial mantra now, but it could feel like 'hurry up and wait' is distracting you. As valid as it might be to fight things, it may prove wiser to surrender or at least to retreat and live to fight another day.

Leo (Jul 23 – Aug 23)

Life is all about change, but some cycles are deeper, faster, and more intense than others. This is likely to be one of those times. Yet, the intensity will be more fully recognized by stepping back. Doing what you can to cooperate with the changes is always ideal, so keep asking yourself what you can do to keep things positive and, better, yet, productive.

Virgo (Aug 24 – Sep 22)

Saturn in your house of relationships is probably slowing everything down, yet also asking you to be patiently committed in your resolve to learn, unlearn, grow, and evolve. This graduation process to advance to the next level is seldom easy or idle. So, you are wise to answer the call with discipline and resolve to set aside casual attitudes and go for it!

Libra (Sep 23 – Oct 22)

Sometimes the past slips away slowly, while at others it can feel like snow melting under a warm springtime Sun, like now. Although that season is not here yet, you can feel it coming on more quickly than you might recall. The time is right to both rest and retreat to recharge, yet also to be planning for the inevitable fast track into the future.

Scorpio (Oct 23 – Nov 21)

Many creative designs are dancing in your mind. Some of these include making your home more beautiful with unique innovations. On the other hand, there are some core changes you might need to make, like renovations perhaps, or at least getting a jump on spring to clean and clear the clutter. Do what you can to see the bigger picture to guide your efforts.

Sagittarius (Nov 22 – Dec 21)

Behind the fiery glow, you're a dreamer and a mystic at heart. This side of you is being illumined especially strongly now and this theme will continue for a few weeks yet. There is a playful, precocious, and perhaps mischievous energy at play as well. It is here to stimulate new considerations regarding your overall lifestyle and what you need to do to improve.

Capricorn (Dec 22 – Jan 19)

You may notice that your imagination is very active these days. Hopefully, you have it harnessed to work for you because as much as it can be your best friend, it can also be your worst enemy. An example is how an undisciplined mind indulges in worry and the illusion of control over situations that are beyond your reach. Know the difference between your sphere of concern and of influence.

Aquarius (Jan 20 – Feb 19)

You yearn to escape somehow, yet you want to be productive as well. Reconciling this contrary impulse is important now. It includes outlining your skills and talents. Self-acknowledgment both for what you have and for what you would be willing to do are good places to start. Willingness is the key, yet it is best expressed when it aligns with a spirit of adventure.

Pisces (Feb 20 – Mar 20)

Although the Sun is in your sign and has been for close to two weeks, you have yet to experience the impulse of the New Moon in your sign as well. All being well, you have been busy and productive in preparation for it. The more you can have things done before it occurs, the more you can make the most of it. This kind of strategic thinking is especially ideal now.
