"Our family has been stuck as to how best to support one another and move forward with compassion. Your astrological reading and intuitive insights have given us so much light on the situation that we feel confident in moving forward with much deeper knowledge and understanding. Thank you," ~ May

Tip of the Week:

The waxing Moon from the Total Solar Eclipse seed event of April 8 will culminate with the Full Moon on April 23 in the early degrees of Scorpio.

It will do so on the heels of the next major event of 2024, which is the conjunction of Jupiter and Uranus in Taurus, which officially occurs on April 21, (but it will be April 20 here in North America). This important conjunction will itself occur on the heels of the Sun entering Taurus on April 19.

Mercury will be retrograde in Aries until April 25, so all these events will occur under its watch.

As is generally true when Mercury is retrograde, the finer details warrant closer scrutiny, and given the indications of hidden agendas, vigilant observers are wise to be on extra alert to eventful clues of participation of such players. As ever, we are wise to exercise critical thinking and not be naïve with accepting matters at face value.

Have a great week!

PS - my Masterclass series continues, with The Laws of Energy and the Psychology of Balance on April 20.

Weekly Horoscope:

Aries (Mar 21 – Apr 19)

Have you noticed a boost in your energy levels, drive, or determination that has been activated by the eclipse? You should not necessarily, but maybe. With Mars in Pisces, it could lead you to react with denial, avoidance, or escapism. If so, try to be aware and counter these tendencies. In the deep end, it could have triggered a soul-searching process.

Taurus (Apr 20 – May 20)

There was something of a rebellious or even revolutionary impulse associated with the eclipse for you. It could simply amount to a determination to push through and beyond any perceived restrictions, barriers, or limitations that you deem unnecessary or undermining. With Uranus and Jupiter in your sign, and Pluto transforming your social status, you are a force.

Gemini (May 21 – Jun 21)

The repercussions of this eclipse include seeing yourself and the world, and in the world, in new ways. A balance between assertion and surrender is featured. Positively, you are keeping an open mind and cooperating with the flow. In the deeper reaches, there is not just a silver lining but one which can be more accurately understood as gold.

Cancer (Jun 22 – Jul 22)

If you needed the destined timing to arrive for changes in your career, social status, or public life in general, then these should be evident by now. The shifts could even be occurring in multiple ways or on various fronts. Positively, returns for past efforts are coming in, even though they may require you to reciprocate with diligence.

Leo (Jul 23 – Aug 23)

A process of building upon new foundations, perhaps especially in association with your career, not only continues but will advance to the next level due to the magnitude of recent events. The eclipse has likely spurred a visionary, adventurous, and perhaps even philosophical impulse. The time is right to get the attention you feel you have earned and deserve.

Virgo (Aug 24 – Sep 22)

Are you noticing any changes in your attitude and approach? You could feel a bit more punchy than usual and bent on making improvements with an emphasis on precision or accuracy. This could serve you well where detailed work is required. You could also find yourself mixing it up with others with feisty exchanges. Aim to keep your cool in the heat.

Libra (Sep 23 – Oct 22)

Destined shifts and changes on relationship fronts should be apparent by now. These may all seem to just be part of the flow, but there are likely to be higher-than-usual spikes in the graph. Positively, these are a source of excitement and progress. Still, there are indications that you will be challenged to meet the situations with extra effort.

Scorpio (Oct 23 – Nov 21)

Are those predicted changes in your daily rhythm and routine being sparked? Your entire lifestyle, and where and how you live may even be under review. If so, trust the flow and make sincere efforts to cooperate. Often when negative circumstances arise, it is our clue to either respond with defense or to surrender, and the latter seems to be the case.

Sagittarius (Nov 22 – Dec 21)

This eclipse has likely activated some rather dramatic events with long-term implications. In some regards, these could be deemed surgical, at least figuratively. Positively, what had to be removed was, or is in the process, allowing you to continue your journey with a new sense of creative freedom and optimism.

Capricorn (Dec 22 – Jan 19)

Circumstances close to home are likely undergoing tremors at the least, but perhaps quakes with much larger magnitude. If you are dealing with difficult events or circumstances, consider that your sense of authenticity may require healing, or more acknowledgment and attention. A willingness to learn or perhaps to unlearn is featured.

Aquarius (Jan 20 – Feb 19)

Aries is directly associated with your overall mode of perception. This includes your perspectives associated with your home and living situation. On one hand, you probably have reason to feel confident about things. On the other hand, however, something is agitating you to make changes which might require help to clearly decipher.

Pisces (Feb 20 – Mar 20)

An ardent push to increase your overall lot in life was at least germinated by this eclipse. This seed will grow steadily over the coming weeks and months. Due to the strong Pisces factor however, you have probably not leaped into action, perhaps quite the opposite. Even so, rest assured, that your determination will grow steadily, especially in May.
