"I just wanted to thank you for all of the insight you gave me on my future. I really appreciate it and I have to say I was very surprised by how accurate you were about me as a person. No one else before has ever even come close to being as good as you were." ~ Nick

Tip of the Week:

The April 23rd Scorpio Full Moon culmination of the historic Solar Eclipse on April 8 was in the spotlight this past week. How it was destined to synchronize with changes in evolutionary activations in your life should be quite evident by now. Sometimes the influence is delayed, but this is much less common. Yet sometimes the shifts are subtle and not easily detectable.

Mercury now direct after a longer than usual retrograde cycle is the other news. Venus entering its ruling sign of Taurus on April 29, and Mars entering its ruling sign of Aries on May 1, add to the happy headlines.

From a wide angle, the biggest conjunction of the year between Jupiter and Uranus in Taurus last weekend is now in its germination phase...

Have a great week!

Weekly Horoscope:

Aries (Mar 21 – Apr 19)

This week will prove pivotal for many, perhaps even for all of us. For you, it will signal a call to adventure. Your confidence will rise along with a fighting spirit. However, it may require added levels of discernment to make sure that you are not fighting a losing battle. Some aspects of your life are meant to melt like snow in spring, so don't pit your will against it.

Taurus (Apr 20 – May 20)

The April 8 eclipse activated some destined karmic returns for you. Hopefully, these are good karma. But the results could also be at least mixed, as is life. In any case, circumstances will guide you this week to express yourself in a variety of ways, revealing your resourceful facets. On the other hand, you also have some inner work to do.

Gemini (May 21 – Jun 21)

You have arrived at an important turning point. Of course, you are not alone, and it is occurring on collective levels as well. But, in your personal story, these shifts should be quite evident and require your full attention. A mix of drive and determination combined with acceptance and surrender is the complex twist in the plot.

Cancer (Jun 22 – Jul 22)

The signs were all there, perhaps even going back months, let alone weeks. And now the stage is set for the destined changes to manifest more fully. These could come with some measure of drama and perhaps even some unexpected events and changes. Yet, there are some creatively inspiring indications as well.

Leo (Jul 23 – Aug 23)

Changes in your public and professional life are underway. If this is not yet evident, then you can be sure that they are occurring beneath the surface. Sometimes we must step back to acknowledge the signs for what they are. Positively, this is an expansive phase, but one that requires sincere effort, especially over the next month.

Virgo (Aug 24 – Sep 22)

Changes can prove subtle, yet powerful like a king wave that goes unnoticed until it washes onto the shore. Something deep and powerful is underway. There is nothing to fear. Just tune in and adapt. Observe what is happening in the flow and trust your intuitive guidance, as it is the part of you that is most connected. If you feel unclear, I can help.

Libra (Sep 23 – Oct 22)

A healing process in your love life is underway. It may well be a healing process with your own body, mind, heart, and soul and the quality of your projections. We all project and our outer reality is very significantly the reflection. This is a call to be more self-aware and kind, caring and loving with yourself. In so doing, others will experience the benefits as well.

Scorpio (Oct 23 – Nov 21)

The big shifts and changes underway now could prove quite promising. They do require a change in your beliefs and visions of what is possible and how and perhaps with whom you might realize your dreams and goals. Lifestyle changes to accompany these are also indicated to loosen the grip on your comfort zone and stretch into the new day.

Sagittarius (Nov 22 – Dec 21)

A creative impulse to make changes in your usual rhythm and routine has been activated. It is your job to tune in and cooperate with the process. You should expect that you will have to work patiently and diligently for the results you desire. Fortunately, Mars entering Aries on May 1 will give you an added boost of creative drive.

Capricorn (Dec 22 – Jan 19)

Some important activations should by now be bearing fruit. These include reasons to feel creative, innovative, and inventive. Just be careful that the energy does not manifest as a clever vice. Consider this possibility and the implications since 'pride comes before the fall'. Positively, you will direct the energy to be more conscientious, thus countering a fall.

Aquarius (Jan 20 – Feb 19)

Your perspectives are steadily changing and along with them, your priorities. You likely have reason to feel confident, yet you may also sense that the ground you stand upon is not as solid as you would like. Compensating for it can best be achieved by redirecting your energy and focus to explore alternatives and perhaps new approaches altogether.

Pisces (Feb 20 – Mar 20)

The Sun in Taurus along with Jupiter, Uranus, and Venus this week are all contributing to a practical, creative focus and dynamic. You yearn to get traction and make every effort count. Investment of your energy holds strong appeal while expenditures of it, do not. While you are wise to take the lead, cooperative efforts with others will likely produce the best results.
