From Aca'u

The Spring Equinox begins in the Northern Hemisphere on March 20th at 5:01 am EDT

Greetings, it is I, Aca'u who speaks to you now.

The divides grow deeper, with each side claiming they are right. This is international. The world rips apart before it can mend. Yet, the devastation that you fear will not occur. Don't permit thoughts of mass destruction to filter into your mind. Remember your power to influence the future.

Tolerance begins with you. That doesn't mean you have to agree with the decisions made, but it does suggest that accepting what is occurring without damning either the situation or the perpetrators is key. You can only change what you accept and move forward from there.

There are legal means to disagree. Follow them. Make your opinion known. This is not a time to stand back in silence. Yet, shouting 'you're wrong' only closes the door to resolution and peace. And peace is where you are heading even though appearances shadow it.

Join groups of like-minded people and find peaceful ways to educate yourself and others on issues that matter to you. Make your views known to your political representatives. In all of this, be a person of peace. You may disagree, but not damn. There is ultimate justice. You don't need to be the judge and jury.

As tensions and crises grow, people seek solutions outside of themselves. No. The change occurs within. It must or growth would not be sustainable.

Evil becomes rampant as energies of avarice and hatred come to the surface. Holding the Light is more important than ever. There are those who seek world domination. They feel it is within their reach. It is not. Evil is never the stronger force. But, people must learn what isolation from allies means and what it means to move away from unity and cooperation. There is also a need for those who have become overly dependent to learn independence. You will see new alliances formed that, in the long run, will create greater unity.

In your personal lives, this is a time for you to courageously step forward towards personal fulfillment. What do you need for your full potential to manifest? What parts of you have been left untapped? Take some time to think of what it is you need for your wholeness. And then, take the actions needed to make them manifest. Move forward and permit joy to enter your heart. It is much needed now.

Kindness has a major impact as well. The world needs more of it in the Universal Bank. Each day, think of something kind that you can do for another human being. It could be giving them an unexpected smile, making a tender gesture towards your spouse, parent or child, sending a text to say 'you're important to me', or making a donation to a favored cause. Each day, make it a point – some kind gesture towards another human being.

Perhaps this sounds too simple to make a difference. I tell you, it will make a difference. These will fill the Universal Bank and spill over into the lives of others, manifesting more and more in the world. Do what you can to bring more joy, kindness, and peace to the world.

As a wise woman once said, these are passing times, not permanent ones. Evolution is underway, peace has been decreed and so shall it be. Help it to arrive.

Trust and walk your path with faith and belief in a good future.

I bid you peace,
Aca'u
