Tip of the Week:

In the waxing light of last week's powerful Scorpio New Moon, many will be relieved to learn that Mercury turns direct on November 29 at 20 Scorpio 45. This Mercury Retrograde cycle has been particularly complex. While the influence is often mechanical, electronic, technological, or generally associated with miscommunications and so on, this one has reached more deeply.

Due to Mercury in Scorpio, the sign of depth psychology, its influences can be identified as causing psychological and psychic disturbances, doubts, confusions and various levels of neurosis.

While in Sagittarius initially, the disruptions could be described as spiritual, as with feeling lost and fearful. Its final push through Scorpio ends on December 11, when it re-enters Sagittarius, and while direct, it stands to resolve these disturbances.

Of course, the experience of these influences is ever subjective and therefore relative. But, the Horoscopes narrow down tendencies and can offer some clues.

Mercury will be in its post-shadow phase for the next 3 weeks, but it will not officially be retrograde until its next destined retrograde cycle starting on February 25, 2026.

Saturn also turned direct on November 27, the day of U.S. Thanksgiving at 25 Pisces 09. While it does not get the same attention, its influence can prove much more powerful than the disturbances caused by Mercury.

Horoscope for the Week:

Aries (Mar 21 – Apr 20)

You feel inspired to go big, and a growing sense of confidence is also there to support you. Yet is this the best time? Preparing and organizing is probably the best choice, but the bigger launch or move might be best initiated when Saturn re-enters Aries in mid-February, or even in spring. Perhaps what is needed now is a wider scope from a different vantage.

Taurus (Apr 20 – May 21)

You are in a passionate and ambitious mood. Yet, dealings with matters on a variety of fronts could challenge your ability to think clearly or focus. You yearn for a deeper dialogue, discussions about the possibilities and the implications of deeper matters. You know that things have changed and will not be as they were. The question is: what are the realities associated with rebirth?

Gemini (May 21 – Jun 21)

You yearn to deepen bonds with significant others. While you feel stable and secure, you could feel bored and want to shake things up. Without interaction, getting lost in the labyrinth of your own mind is a concern. Giving feels right, but you want to receive too, so some kind of exchange is probably the answer. What looks like a meeting in the middle?

Cancer (Jun 21 – Jul 22)

Circumstances are guiding you to pay closer attention to the health of your daily routine and rhythm, or the lack thereof. Getting creative about how you can make needed changes is indicated. Increasing the quality as opposed to merely adjusting the quantity requires extra effort to formulate a strategy. Associating pain to negative habits is key to breaking free.

Leo (Jul 22 – Aug 23)

The Sun in Sagittarius is inspiring you to play the game better. While logical thinking can guide your will and strategy, there are indications that you could feel guided by your soul to take some leaps of faith. These can still be calculated and carefully organized, but not taking action could prove frustrating. The time is right to take a new approach.

Virgo (Aug 23 – Sep 22)

Looking to the future is leading you to dig in deep to get to the bottom of things. Some form of renovation is indicated. What constitutes the past that must be cleared to make way for the new is an important question to ask yourself. Some measure of critical analysis is required. One way or another, you want change, and it could even feel necessary.

Libra (Sep 22 – Oct 22)

Your current situation could be described as grace under pressure. You yearn to advance your position, but it will only come by earning it. To this end, you need to be disciplined. Financial matters are on your mind, and you feel determined to investigate the possibilities and what is required to make wise investments. Fortunately, your energy levels are running strong.

Scorpio (Oct 22 – Nov 21)

Your confidence levels are steadily rising. Your focus is sharper than usual, and you passionately yearn to express yourself more fully, and authentically. As eager as you are to forge ahead, you are also aware that a slow and steady approach will work better than trying to rush things. Still, you do have dreams to fulfill and are working on a plan.

Sagittarius (Nov 21 – Dec 21)

The Sun in your sign is your cue to take new initiatives. Yet, to realize your dreams, you might have to clear out anything that seems to be in the way. The main objective is to clarify what you want and to sharpen your focus. This may seem a little harder to do currently, but will get progressively easier in December, especially if you do some clearing work in the meantime.

Capricorn (Dec 21 – Jan 19)

Either you are engaged in a process of confronting your fears and slaying any doubt demons, or you are in escape mode. This instinctual fight or flight reaction can be overcome with awareness, vision and resolve. This is where intuition comes to the fore. While instinct is the way of the gut, intuition is the way of the heart, not that of sentimentalities, but that of personal truth and self-honesty.

Aquarius (Jan 19 – Feb 19)

Your sights are set on the future. One way or another, you are engaged in creating waves of change. Your confidence in the process is there, but there may be some hidden concerns. Yet, when destiny 'says' it is time for change, what can we do but comply as cooperatively as possible? Building upon new foundations is featured. Onward and upward!

Pisces (Feb 19 – Mar 20)

Sagittarius time brings emphasis to your public and professional life. Mars in Sagittarius there, which is especially strong for you, will help a lot as well. With Jupiter in watery Cancer, a true love sign for you, there is an added blessing present at this time. Use these auspicious factors to push for a promotion, a raise or a new job or career altogether.
