

Sun Star Astrology Forecast for The Week of December 19 – 25, 2025

Need clarity, vision, and strategy? Benefit from over 30 years of experience to better understand the true 'you' beyond outer pressures and layers of social conditioning, What cycles of destiny are underway and what new chapters are destined to begin now and in the coming months and years.

Learn How an Astrology Reading Can Help You

Contact Michael for an Appointment: michael@sunstarastrology.com

"Thanks so much for everything you shared with me. It's been super helpful and I feel like I am oriented towards the future with a different attitude. I'm looking forward to listening to the recordings again and diving into all the resources you have shared with me." - Chelsey

Tip of the Week:

(This week's tip is longer, similar in length of what Members receive).

Happy Solstice and Merry Christmas!

Winter Solstice can be regarded as nature's New Year. Aligned as it is with the official start of the four seasons, which divide the year into 4 equal quarters is as old as the Earth itself. Astrology is anchored into this perennial, rhythmic process, which is based on the Sun/Earth relationship. That is why when understood correctly, the Zodiac is recognized as a calendar and a clock combined. The notion that Christmas is associated with Winter Solstice and symbolic of the rebirth of the 'Sun', is very old - the weave of Pagan celebrations with Christian beliefs.

The big news now is the New Moon (today) on December 19 at 28 Sagittarius 25, which is closely aligned with the Galactic Center. The Sun is deemed in exact alignment from our geo-centric perspective on December 18, but due to the immensity of the so-called black hole at the center, the alignment can be better regarded as encompassing December 17, 18 and 19.

Last month, the Scorpio New Moon on November 20 hosted an exact conjunction, which means the planets, including Sun and Moon, (which are technically referred to as Luminaries), share the same longitudinal position, from Earth's perspective, even though the latitude is not always the same.

So, that triple conjunction was powerful and the background influence of it has been with us ever since.

But it ends with this next New Moon on December 19, which happens to have Mars closely aligned in front, if in Capricorn, and Venus closely trailing behind. Thus this New Moon is 'contained by Venus and Mars, the planets of desire and passionate action.

This alignment is forming a powerful 'upper square' to Saturn and Neptune - both in Pisces, symbolic of the ending of a whole era, which can be described as the 'structure of a dream', a relative illusion, a temporary version of reality, which will be replaced by a whole new dream and structure associated with both Saturn and Neptune re-entering Aries in early 2026, the sign of new beginnings.

The other key aspect stemming from this significant New Moon is an 'upper inconjunct' to Uranus in Taurus, which is very significant in terms of the changing economy.

Looking ahead a bit, the Sun forming a conjunction with Neptune and Saturn, respectively, will occur on March 22 and 25, 2026, on the heels of Spring Equinox. And when the Sun forms a conjunction with Uranus on May 22, 2026, these dates will synchronize with major developments associated with economic reform. It is likely that this will manifest as the next really significant push to digital currency, which is associated with the digital ID...

This is a time of shedding old skins in preparation for the new cycle to come.

2026 is a Universal 1-Year. The world is changing rapidly now. Due to the influences of modern technology, which has contributed to closer ties between every nation and culture on Earth, as with the internet, for example, and now AI and 'everything' going digital, the changes indicated can be understood as more encompassing on a global scale and faster than any other process of change in human history, save perhaps for global cataclysms associated with comet and asteroid strikes on Earth.

I think we are wise to realize that the destined time for these revolutionary changes is here. Resistance to the coming changes will likely prove futile, yet by knowing and aligning with your destiny path, you can better feel empowered to adapt without undue conformity, and perhaps even contribute to refining the process, to keep it humanistic and just.

We can try to be prepared, mentally, emotionally, physically and spiritually, but the best way to do so is to be as flexible and adaptable as we can.

I can provide you with astrological insights, as with my Horoscopes and with personal Readings. I can help you with awareness and guidance to better understand your destined path and role amidst it all, and support you to remain centered, grounded and aligned in your own destined journey.

Have a great week!

My Free Weekly Horoscope will close at the end of 2025.

BUT...you can continue to Weekly Horoscopes with extended tips (such as above) in 2026 and MUCH more with a Membership!

\(See Membership Benefits Here\).

Get FREE Bonus Annual Memberships and BIG Savings with my Annual Christmas Special (and Holiday Season Gift Certificates)!

LEARN MORE

Horoscope for the Week:

Aries (Mar 21 – Apr 20)

The Adventurous call of Sagittarius is yielding to the ambitious drive of Capricorn. In both cases, however, the potent Pisces factor has probably been a silent, hidden obstacle. This deterring, delaying influence will officially end in mid-February, so how can you be productive in the meantime? The answer includes tending to unfinished business, first.

Taurus (Apr 20 – May 21)

You have likely been pushing to go bigger, deeper, and wider. All other thoughts aside, this refers to a passionate push to cover a lot of ground. Tending to your family, friend and work fronts, rhythmically, is not new, but you want more, more engagement and progress. While this will continue for a while yet, the push now is to bring your dreams down to earth.

Gemini (May 21 – Jun 21)

As though at a party and having so much fun, you did not notice that most of the guests had already left, but you continued dancing. Yes, it could have something to do with the... refreshments, and oh those bitter-tasting chocolates, but there are other reasons. Wild abandon aside, current factors will shift you into a deeper determination yet, to joyfully see the sun rise.

Cancer (Jun 21 – Jul 22)

A big emphasis on living your dreams as features of your overall lifestyle continues. The focus has been to create more beauty, harmony and flow. That this has come from a significant process of purging the past, whether by choice, circumstance, or both, you are preparing to push for a new dream altogether, or the next major phase of your current process.

Leo (Jul 22 – Aug 23)

While the more playful and creative influence from Sagittarius will continue well into 2026, the dynamic has already begun to steadily shift to a more serious, sober and industrious focus. Upon reflection, you will notice that your attitude and approach has changed this year compared to last, and even more so recently. Now you want more practical traction.

Virgo (Aug 23 – Sep 22)

Sagittarius is symbolically associated with home and family and can be described as the sign associated with your core nature, but which is not outwardly apparent. The New Moon will perpetuate an orientation to both, which includes getting even more in touch with your personal truth over the coming weeks. The emerging Capricorn will push you to play hard... ball.

Libra (Sep 22 – Oct 22)

While your focus continues to be spread thinly over a spectrum of thoughts and considerations, your focus will shift back to the realities of your health and that of your lifestyle in general. A whole new commitment in this regard is rising, if slowly. It will push you to get real at a whole new level and will include the challenge of squarely facing your fears.

Scorpio (Oct 22 – Nov 21)

The celestial influences of late have guided you to get more fully in touch with your values, priorities and personal truth. This trend will continue for several weeks but will be overlaid with even more practical consideration. These are associated with your sense of personal power in the world, your worth and self-esteem. Vote for yourself and assert your earned rights.

Sagittarius (Nov 21 – Dec 21)

The stellium in your sign and now the New Moon anchor theme is sure to be activating new assertions, expressions or orientations. This lingering influence will turn to a more determined drive, with ample gravity to plough through obstacles. A learning curve is indicated, which will become increasingly evident in early 2026.

Capricorn (Dec 21 – Jan 19)

A push for a whole new level of power should be evident now. A big push to 'unlearn' is indicated. Breaking free of limiting concepts, personal interpretations of who you are and what is possible, inherited and conditioned perspectives and beliefs, takes effort, but the rewards of feeling liberated, more inspired, energetic and enthusiastic are worth it.

Aquarius (Jan 19 – Feb 19)

Taking time out to dive in deeper, digest and gestate the seeds planted by the Strong Sagittarius influences is the call over the next several weeks. If nothing else, you will be contemplating the possible shifts of attitude and approach you have experienced and focusing more on new and more realistic and empowering knowledge and skills.

Pisces (Feb 19 – Mar 20)

Significant initiatives in your public and professional life are shaking your world. A revolutionary push will grow steadily over the coming weeks. Focusing to establish a more dynamic momentum will become the new norm. Transcending prior limitations, perhaps especially associated with your earning potential, is featured.

Thank you for sharing with friends!

<https://sunstarastrology.com>