"Thank you for a refreshing eye opener - you really clear the trees and wipe out the cobwebs in life scapes." ~ Nancy

Tip of the Week:

The last Full Moon of the year, in Gemini on December 4, is in the spotlight now. With Mercury still in Scorpio, there remains an internal pull and an added air of mystery and intrigue on the airwaves.

Positively, Sun and Mars and now Venus too all in Sagittarius, add enthusiasm and verve to the overall mood, and Pluto in Aquarius is inspiring spirit of illumination.

Jupiter in Cancer adds to the buoyancy of the tone, and Neptune in Pisces contributes to the mystique.

Uranus in Taurus and Saturn in Pisces, meanwhile, could be deemed dampeners, yet their positions do indicate social opportunities.

Neptune turns direct on December 10, still in its own ruling sign of Pisces, (where it has slowly moved through since April 3, 2011, in the early waxing light of the New Moon in Aries, which was the central feature of a six-planet stellium all closely huddled together in the sign of the pioneering ram). It does not come as a surprise that the 'Occupy Wall Street' movement was festering and burst into flame while the Sun was in Leo that year. Positively, Neptune in Pisces has synchronized with a steadily emerging mode of spirituality that can be accurately referred to as spiritual science.

Horoscope for the Week:

Aries (Mar 21 – Apr 20)

A pioneering and sporting mood should be enough to be uplifting your spirits. Although still retrograde, which brings an element of doubt to the otherwise boost of confidence from Jupiter's placement in Cancer, you are feeling uplifted and willing to make the extra efforts to engage your reality with creative determination.

Taurus (Apr 20 – May 21)

The Sun in Sagittarius, the Centaur (Chiron), and currently including Mars and Venus, constitute a complex blend with your Taurus Sun. The result could feel like the plight of the mythic Minotaur, destined to dwell in the labyrinth, which equates to the lower mind. The main lesson of the Minotaur myth revolves around themes of courage, sacrifice, and the struggle against one's inner demons.

Gemini (May 21 – Jun 21)

Sagittarius is having a party in your relationship zone, Sun, Mars, and Venus are there, and Mercury and Moon too are on their way. Late arrivals or not, the mood is already hot. How can you resist this euphoric spirit destined to uplift you? The Full Moon in your sign is contributing its own special magic to the mix, full of wit and armed with a bag of tricks!

Cancer (Jun 21 – Jul 22)

The rising Sagittarius tide is amplifying your resolve to do whatever it takes to rise above prior patterns. This includes giving to the process as much as you can. With Jupiter in your sign, this is an expansive time in your life. Yet, this cannot occur if you remain bound by the past. Affirm your resolve to identify what you need to let go of and leave behind.

Leo (Jul 22 – Aug 23)

Sagittarius is the wild sign of the Zodiac, symbolic of the remote and vast tracts of wilderness that still constitute the greater margin of the world. It is calling you to be bold and adventurous, to enter new and unknown territory, literally and/or figuratively. Your main task is to decipher what this means and implies and to envision your approach.

Virgo (Aug 23 – Sep 22)

This week's Gemini Full Moon will have an impact on your career and social status in general. The basic influence of the Moon, especially when it is full, is change. It marks a time when we need to assess whether certain people or situations genuinely align with our sense of individuality and what we feel we want, need, and truly value.

Libra (Sep 22 – Oct 22)

The culminating influence of the Scorpio New Moon, combined with the Sun, Mars, and Venus in Sagittarius, and now the Full Moon in Gemini, are all contributing to a yearning for change, liberation, and renewal. Your very beliefs and associated slant of perceptions are changing. In short, you want to feel better, and the time has come to take more deliberate measures.

Scorpio (Oct 22 – Nov 21)

If slowly, you are surely orienting to enter new territory. While it is not about the money, per se, the money matters too. Your focus is sharp, and yet you also want to proceed creatively, strategically. You might need a realistic plan to support your vision. Thinking big will probably work better than taking a conservative approach. Look as far down the road as you can.

Sagittarius (Nov 21 – Dec 21)

Sun, Mars, Venus, and Mercury, and the Moon soon, are all gracing your sign. This signifies an impulse to advance in the synchronicity flow of your circumstances. With Jupiter in Cancer, you are destined to receive karmic returns, for better or worse, and sometimes it is a mix of both. Saturn and Neptune in late Pisces are contributing by cleaning up any messes.

Capricorn (Dec 21 – Jan 19)

An inward draw could feel strong, and this trend will continue. Hardly passive, it is riddled with purpose. At best, it is activating you to lay claim to your core sense of authenticity. Yet, it must first clear away any illusions, delusions, denials, or disruptive beliefs, or social conditioning that has been like an uninvited visitor that has long overstayed its visit.

Aquarius (Jan 19 – Feb 19)

The strong Sagittarius influence is destined to shake your world with new truths and realities. It need not be dramatic or painful, and it could even prove refreshing and liberating. Yet, it remains that a leap of faith is part of this destined process. The aspiration to new knowledge and new dreams too, is all part of the plot, coming in early 2026.

Pisces (Feb 19 – Mar 20)

Your public and professional world is changing now. An expansion or promotion is indicated. At worst, you feel a little lost currently. However, if you can tune in, you will realize that you are simply in a fog patch that will begin to clear this week. It will likely take a couple more weeks to clear, but a new sense of adventure and purpose is destined to begin now.
