"While not everyone is yet aware of it, the world has been subject to unprecedented levels of mass deception ever since Neptune entered Pisces in 2011. On the high side, this transit has given rise to mass spiritual awakening, yet neither are all people awake to it." ~ Michael O'Connor

Tip of the Week:

The New Moon in Pisces on February 27 was a 5 planet stellium including Sun, Moon, Mercury, Saturn, and Neptune all in Pisces.

The all-important Lunar North Node is also featured in this alignment, and was closely conjunct Neptune.

Altogether this combination is indicative of high ideals and the need for vigilant scrutiny, as well as the objective of seeing through veils of deception.

To elaborate on the North Node factor, the 18-month Nodal Cycle in Pisces/Virgo began on January 10/11. This is a quest to see the self as part of a greater whole. You need to learn mind over matter to transform your self pre-occupation into spiritual unity.

Pisces is also associated with compassion and faith. Not blind faith mind you, but faith in the unseen, the inner dimensions that co-exist just as radio waves, wi-fi, and other frequency technologies do that surround us.

Have a great first week of March,

Michael

Weekly Horoscope:

Aries (Mar 21 – Apr 20)

As you head into March, you may feel like you are living in a dream, with the ongoing Piscean factor. Positively, there is some lucidity indicated by Venus in a playful and expressive placement. Yet, it remains that getting through each day might feel challenging. Perhaps not in the deeper sense, just at the surface, but maybe not. Go easy on yourself, your time is coming.

Taurus (Apr 20 – May 21)

You are not alone with feeling like you are wading through neck-deep waters. Positively, your energy levels have begun to rise again after some pretty heavy weeks. All the while, you have been called to fulfill a meaningful role beyond the norm. Have you answered, or will you? Dreams will be fulfilled, perhaps yours, but those of others for sure.

Gemini (May 21 – Jun 21)

Fresh starts in your world are a source of inspiration. While responsibilities are involved, there is something extra special germinating in your world. Some kind of birth adding to your family tree. If it is not so literal, it could be creative offspring of a more imaginative and artistic sort. Either way, extra efforts might be required, so adjust your attitude to meet the demand.

Cancer (Jun 21 – Jul 22)

Whispers from your soul should be coming in strongly now. While this is not a new theme, it is flowing extra strongly now. Whether it is a call from your higher mind, or to focus to access it, meaningful messages are coming in that you will feel blessed to receive. So, if you are reading this, tune in to receive and you will.

Leo (Jul 22 – Aug 23)

Deep waters in your world are being stirred these days. These could be of the sort that require your immediate and urgent attention and should not be taken lightly, denied or dismissed. On the high side, you are undergoing deep changes that can be described as a metamorphosis from which a whole new you will emerge, with wings.

Virgo (Aug 23 – Sep 22)

Sweet dreams are made of cycles like these. A highly creative influence is available, but you have to claim it. Efforts are required and you should not expect to simply be given what is being offered. Show up, be receptive, be willing, do what is required, and push as needed to persevere. The good news is that others are destined to participate.

Libra (Sep 22 – Oct 22)

What once was in your world has been steadily dissolving, as if before your very eyes. Adaptation is all you can do, yet this requires a willingness to learn new skills, or at least to think differently. Exploring new horizons is more than possible, it is required, but you have to awaken out of your slumber and say yes to your destiny.

Scorpio (Oct 22 – Nov 21)

Much of your creative source is connected to Pisces. It is the colorful factor that inspires your dreams and empowers your skills to fully access your talents. The only thing to protect yourself from is negative hallucinations. This complex weave of factors is growing stronger daily now and the more you respond, the more creative you feel.

Sagittarius (Nov 21 – Dec 21)

Diving even more deeply than ever to access your core and source has been activated by this New Moon. At worst, you could be dealing with emotional overwhelm or what could amount to a backlog of negative emotions that have become stagnant, or even toxic. Positively, you are getting access to feel deeply sounding the depths to access truths beyond opinions.

Capricorn (Dec 21 – Jan 19)

Circumstances are stirring your imagination to greater depths than you perhaps even knew you had. The more sobering question is to consider if you are being influenced to think in ways that are not aligned with your core sense of authenticity. If you think you might be, you probably are. Alternatively, this could be the source of inspired visions that could be like food for your creative soul.

Aquarius (Jan 19 – Feb 19)

Investing into your future implies a visionary perspective, as with recognizing the importance of investing today for the sake of future returns. This fundamental aspect of life is simply common sense. However, it takes both faith and risk to make the efforts without the certainty of return. The key is to enjoy the process anyway, because today is yesterday's future.

Pisces (Feb 19 – Mar 20)

The time has come to take new, strong strides forward. With Mars in Cancer now direct, you should by now be feeling more energetic and determined than you perhaps did a couple of weeks ago. You should be prepared to work harder, perhaps than you have for some time, and this theme of putting in your time with diligent efforts will pretty much continue all year!
