"Gaining a clearer and deeper understanding of who we are and what constitutes the finer details of our destiny is where Astrology comes to the fore. In my extensive studies of multiple systems over 4 + decades of research and practice, no other model or system even comes close to it. Not Numerology, not the Tarot, not Myers Briggs, not some other form of oracular tools, not any psychic or medium or anything else. All of these can prove helpful but are invariably limited." ~ Michael O'Connor

Tip of the Week:

The Sun entered Gemini on May 20 this year, to begin what can accurately be described as 'Gemini Time'.

The New Moon in Gemini on May 26 also indicates an added, creative zeal. The Sun, Moon, Mercury, and Jupiter all in Gemini will also inspire both intellectual exchanges and social engagement.

In the background, Uranus in the late degrees of Taurus indicates the worldwide revolution pushing towards digital and crypto currencies. At worst, Uranus slowly pushing through the final degrees of the bull is indicative of selfishness, megalomania, and unscrupulous antics in mass social, political, and economic arenas, (a.k.a., power grabs).

Jupiter approaching its 3rd and final square with Saturn in Cardinal Cancer and Aries respectively in early July, is part of this plot, but more on that later.

In the foreground, the pace will accelerate steadily this week with the Moon in Aries and making multiple conjunctions to begin new cycles. The first of this series is a conjunction with Saturn at the critical 29th degree, just hours before it makes subsequent conjunctions to Neptune, Venus, and Chiron, activating a creative, healing or repairing cycle, supported by Mars in Leo.

Positively, much can be achieved and on a variety of fronts. At worst, the focus could become scattered, and efforts squandered. It comes down to vision, determination, strategy, and focus.

Have a great week,

Michael

Weekly Horoscope:

Aries (Mar 21 – Apr 20)

The Moon in your sign as the week begins will spark your interests and energy levels, even amidst the waning Moon. Expect the pace to accelerate as well, as Spring enters its final third and drives towards summer. With Saturn entering your sign, you may notice that you become more sober and determined, and it will push you to confront any inhibiting fears.

Taurus (Apr 20 – May 21)

You are probably as busy and engaged as a dandelion-loving honeybee in May. Mercury in Taurus has guided a practical, ‘show me the money’ attitude, but that edge stands to soften as you direct more attention to purpose than profit. Even so, your vision is invariably kaleidoscopic as you focus on allocating energy and focus to a variety of fronts, some practical, while others less so, with an emphasis to simply be...

Gemini (May 21 – Jun 21)

The Sun now in your sign signifies new initiatives. This will become even more evident as the New Moon enters its waxing phase. Mercury in your sign too will synchronize with sharpened interests guided by Spring-like curiosity. The urge to express and communicate, to be heard and acknowledged, will likely prove stronger than inclinations to simply listen.

Cancer (Jun 21 – Jul 22)

The time is right for a bout of retreat, or at least enjoying more time behind the scenes. This cycle will not last long, especially since Jupiter is destined to enter your sign on June 9, which will have an amplifying effect on you somehow. So, this is your cue to use this time to rest and recharge, or at least to quiet your mind in preparation for a big tent event coming your way soon!

Leo (Jul 22 – Aug 23)

Gemini time is both about you in terms of your heightened sense of individuality and your social outreach. As is true of the twins, you will focus to satisfy both. Mars in your sign is helping you to take bold new initiatives, and Jupiter entering Cancer could result in a significant boost in your confidence levels. Yet, the key is to connect within first.

Virgo (Aug 23 – Sep 22)

Gemini shares close association with your public and professional life. You can, therefore, expect some activations in this area, especially after the New Moon. Jupiter has been in Gemini for almost a year now, leading to expansion, yet has been subject to contraction, or what can be described as ‘grace under pressure’. Yet, the restriction is about to be released.

Libra (Sep 22 – Oct 22)

The call of new adventures will become louder this week. Like a clarion piercing the airwaves with its shrill summons, you will feel inspired to respond. A yearning to see a bigger picture, yet close up and in detail, is featured. More than mere answers, you will push for harder truths that bypass your mind and that speak directly to and from your heart.

Scorpio (Oct 22 – Nov 21)

Perhaps more than any other sign, your journey often guides you to junctures that require discernment regarding higher and lower roads. The irony is that the higher way is usually harder, but the rewards are also greater. A yearning for new knowledge and skills that equate to personal power is dancing in your mind, perhaps as dreams yearning to be realized.

Sagittarius (Nov 21 – Dec 21)

Your world has been steadily changing. In some respects, the process has been one of expansion and liberation. Yet, since it has also been a soul process, it has also effectively served to sever you from ego attachments, which can leave a person feeling raw and vulnerable. The key now is to increase your social outreach with a sense of adventure.

Capricorn (Dec 21 – Jan 19)

Gemini in your chart points to fresh activations in your lifestyle, with added emphasis on health. The guiding principle is realism, perhaps guided by idealism, yet not replaced by it. Saturn entering Aries will push you harder than you perhaps have been for some time. Positively, it will mobilize you to become more determined than ever.

Aquarius (Jan 19 – Feb 19)

Hopefully you are in the mood for some fun and games, because that is what Gemini time has in store. On the other hand, it could manifest more fully as some measure of drama that will push to draw on your reserves of faith. Your willingness to explore new directions, or at least new modes of perception, interpretation, and expression, is featured.

Pisces (Feb 19 – Mar 20)

Directing more time, energy, and focus to home and family will become increasingly apparent over the coming days and weeks. Positively, a creative impulse is also rising, and one that will last quite a while. Hardly a singular focus, it will direct you to endeavor to achieve a variety of goals on a variety of fronts, or at least a major project with many angles and facets.
