"Hi Michael, I just listened again to the reading that you did for me last month. I just wanted to let you know that I think you are very good at what you do! Your reading was so bang-on, it's kinda scary!" Cheers, Renay

Tip of the Week:

Even with Summer Solstice fast approaching and Mars entering Virgo on June 17, Jupiter in Cancer is the big news now.

Positively, Jupiter in Cancer boosts confidence levels. However, while Jupiter is symbolic of faithful expansion and increase, it can prove to inflate egos and attitudes too. In other words, it could embolden some at the expense of others.

This is certainly how the game on Earth goes, and in duality in general. All increases or strong assertions must invariably be countered for the sake of balance. Since its entry into Cancer occurred while the Moon was already waxing, the next New Moon - also in Cancer, that occurs on June 25, will more fully activate its influence.

The personal question is: what will its influence be in your chart and life, specifically?

Have a great week,

Michael

Weekly Horoscope:

Aries (Mar 21 – Apr 20)

Saturn and Neptune, closely aligned at the early degrees of Aries, is the heavy in your world now. Its effect is likely to be one of delay and possible confusion, requiring patience. Fortunately, Mars in the late degrees of Leo is supporting a sporting attitude and approach. As it shifts into Virgo, you will likely be challenged to manage some emotional turbulence from about June 17-27, especially.

Taurus (Apr 20 – May 21)

A busy time continues, and will continue yet, especially through much of July. You have likely been digging in deeply, perhaps inspired, but probably pushed by circumstances to get to the bottom of things. Maybe these things are associated with outer tasks, yet the focus might also be on you, your attitude, your focus and investment. Get ready for a creative, if edgy push.

Gemini (May 21 – Jun 21)

New directions and aspirations have by now been set in motion. The pace will accelerate over the coming weeks. You should be prepared to be confronted with the need to make bigger efforts. Attitude is ever the key and is supported by gratitude. Jupiter in Cancer is destined to be an abundant cycle for you. The challenge is to contribute to it being the kind you want.

Cancer (Jun 21 – Jul 22)

Jupiter's inflationary impact in your sign has begun. You are not at the mercy of fate or circumstances, however. This is where the power of choice comes to the fore. The key is to be clear and deliberate and to follow through too. Left to its own, Jupiter could expand your waistline and nothing else, so get clear on how you want to direct it.

Leo (Jul 22 – Aug 23)

Jupiter in Cancer for you will offer access to deep reserves of faith, confidence, and power. A core feature of this power will include your ability to imagine. On the high side, imagination is the power behind creativity, empathy, and compassion too. Negatively, imagination can twist perspectives and literally lead a person insane due to negative hallucinations. Focus to make it work for you.

Virgo (Aug 23 – Sep 22)

Returns for past efforts will begin to roll in for you with Jupiter entering Cancer. Hopefully, you have been diligent and integral, because the returns could as easily manifest as liabilities as rewards. Often, the results are mixed. Whatever the results, the point of power is ever in the moment. Negatively, you will be extra busy putting out fires. Positively, you will be riding the waves.

Libra (Sep 22 – Oct 22)

Jupiter in Cancer indicates themes of contracted expansion. The contracted part implies the need for sober thinking, focus, and discipline. To this end, you are wise to at least be aware, but working with a plan stands to bring about the best returns. This is a call to at least set some of your bigger goals in motion, to establish a foundation and build a momentum.

Scorpio (Oct 22 – Nov 21)

Cancer is your philosophical sign. It is associated with innovative thinking and invention too. Some measure of engineering is implied, if in the loosest sense of the word. The main point is that truth is more fully a principle of action than it is of mere ideas. In other words, our actions are the strongest expression of our truth, so focus to bring them into greater alignment.

Sagittarius (Nov 21 – Dec 21)

Over the past year, the flow of destiny has been to deepen and widen the scope of your relationship life. Meeting new people, supporting the prospects of new friendships, and involvements were featured. Whatever the result, the focus now is to deepen bonds and advance to the next major steps and phases of engagement and cooperative participation.

Capricorn (Dec 21 – Jan 19)

Are you ready for more and deeper engagement? The focus is especially strong regarding family relationships. Deciphering who you are at this stage and what constitutes your best approach is featured. In the short term, you will likely push to experience a wider scope of freedom, at least to express yourself more authentically, which might require clearer boundaries.

Aquarius (Jan 19 – Feb 19)

Jupiter in Cancer could have mixed results for you. On one hand, you could well experience a whole new level of abundance. The challenge could include the need to overcome tendencies to worry, probably due to an overemphasis on unnecessary details. Regarding the latter, where and how can you be (or do you need to be) more faithful and less exact?

Pisces (Feb 19 – Mar 20)

Cancer is your creative sign, and Jupiter there will support you in kind. The key now is to resume what you started over the past year or two. You will likely be involved in multiple projects, so trust that and do your best to manage your time well. This is a call to cultivate your existing skills and talents with an emphasis on entering new territory, such as in the marketplace.
