Your Weekly Horoscope for July 4 - 10

Tip of the Week:

Happy Birthday, USA! ☐☐

Today, July 4th sees Venus entering curious, social Gemini, and Neptune turning retrograde.

The other big news this week is Uranus also entering Gemini on July 7. The waxing Moon will culminate to full on July 10. And Saturn is ‘apparently’ traveling very slow before it turns retrograde on July 12/13, and Mercury too before its 3-week retrograde retreat that begins on July 17.

The Sun entering Leo on July 22 under the late waning Moon in Cancer (having entered just an hour or so prior), where the emotional reaction factor is deemed higher than any other sign, is also noteworthy. It indicates letting go of the past and clearing the clutter, whether literally or psychologically, or both, and committing to the future.

So, July 2025 is slated to be a dynamic and complex month indeed.

Have a great week,

Michael

Weekly Horoscope:

Aries (Mar 21 – Apr 20)

A passionate resolve is guiding your focus. You feel determined to get a lot done to progress your overall position. With Saturn closely aligned with Neptune, however, the slope might be quite slippery, challenging you to get a firm grip. Trust the flow, lighten up, be realistic about achieving big advances now, and have more fun, counting any progress as satisfactory.

Taurus (Apr 20 – May 21)

A busy time continues, and you find yourself covering a lot of bases. Positively, doing the rounds this way feels rhythmic and fulfilling, and hardly boring. A heightened creative impulse is also indicated, so focus to harness it. However, in keeping with the kaleidoscopic plot at play, aim to spread it across the full spectrum as well.

Gemini (May 21 – Jun 21)

Uranus entering your sign, and Venus too, will activate an innovative and expressive determination. Outer resistance to your resolve will be met with a rebellious resolve to do it your way. Enjoying a spectrum of expressions is also featured for you, so trust the flow and don't get too fixated on any one thing, or at least take plenty of breaks, allowing for temporary tangents.

Cancer (Jun 21 – Jul 22)

An expansive and adventurous mood is igniting your imagination. Any restrictions to your full engagement will be met with annoyance and impatience. With your energy levels running high, you yearn to meet them in a like manner. At least orient yourself to a position where you can see a bigger picture of inspiring possibilities.

Leo (Jul 22 – Aug 23)

Some cycles are best enjoyed in the slow lane, perhaps like the one you are in now. You can still be creative and productive, even more so, according to some. Since commitment and consistency significantly compensate for talent or skill, the timeless recipe for success is to patiently persevere. Relax to be more receptive and enjoy the many splendours of the season.

Virgo (Aug 23 – Sep 22)

Getting clear on who your true friends are and who are not is featured now and could prove quite liberating. Give yourself permission to love only who and what you feel truly has a place in your heart. In doing so, you can direct your feelings more fully and without the need to diversify or spread them thin. Sometimes, less is indeed more.

Libra (Sep 22 – Oct 22)

Increase, growth, expansion, opportunity, advancement, promotion..., whatever the correct term is, it is happening. The twist is that it will require extra effort, more discipline, and perhaps even compel you to double down somehow. Commitment is a keyword, and playing the long game will probably work better anyway. So, what is the accurate description for you?

Scorpio (Oct 22 – Nov 21)

You have begun a deep and meaningful cycle. It could be described as philosophical. You are on a quest to determine what freedom truly means to you and looks like in reality and real time. Your sights are set on the future, and you feel hopeful, yet you also realize that you have work to do to achieve your goal. Go for it!

Sagittarius (Nov 21 – Dec 21)

Clean, clear, purge, and liberate. You are in a process of clearing the old to make way for the new. Investments are implied, and directing these to your most cherished dreams is extra important. Investment does not necessarily equate to money, and could include your time, focus, and commitment. P.S. Outlining a to-do list will help a lot.

Capricorn (Dec 21 – Jan 19)

It is said that when it comes to relationships, family is the most important. While it usually is, it does not necessarily refer to those whom we are connected to biologically. Perhaps you count lifetime friends or pets, or neighbors, perhaps as family too. However you define it, the emphasis now is on both fully embracing and expanding your circle.

Aquarius (Jan 19 – Feb 19)

Directing more attention to lifestyle rhythms is a central theme. Time management is featured and refers to both daily patterns, but also includes expanding your scope to encompass a wider view of your whole life. This includes getting inspired about what you would like to have and do, and then setting intentions and dates, and any other details that make sense.

Pisces (Feb 19 – Mar 20)

Fun, games, play, creativity, entertainment, laughter, pleasure, and the like are among the keywords that make life worth living. The finer details include deciphering what this means, looks like, and feels like to you. Avoid assumptions and comparisons, but do make the effort to get in touch with your feelings because doing so will clarify the joyful you.
